

Moderator

Role Summary

Moderators review centres' assessments of candidates' work in accordance with the agreed assessment criteria and Pearson's procedures. Each moderator is allocated a specified number of centre samples.

Responsibilities

- To carry out the moderation of parts of a subject examination, such as coursework, projects and special studies. These are marked initially by teachers in the centres and then sent to you. Moderation will usually involve sampling procedures. Moderators will not be required to visit centres.
- To undertake, when necessary, the direct assessment of school-based components in the subject where centres opt not to make initial assessments.

Experience and qualifications required

- You will have a degree or equivalent
- You will be a qualified teacher
- You will have UK based teaching experience in the relevant subject and level
- You will have assessment experience in the relevant subject and level

Competencies required

- You will have a high level of subject knowledge in order to apply the mark scheme
- You will have the ability to work well under pressure and meet deadlines
- You will be IT literate