

BTEC Next Generation Visiting Moderator

About Pearson

Welcome to Pearson, the world's leading learning company. We have a simple mission: to help people make more of their lives through learning.

We are the UK's largest awarding body and offer qualifications that are globally recognised and benchmarked, with educational excellence rooted in names like Edexcel, BTEC, EDI and LCCI.

Role Summary

A Visiting Moderator visits centres to carry out the moderation of certain forms of work which is marked initially by teacher examiners/assessors in the centres. A Visiting Moderator will review the centre assessment of candidates' work in accordance with the agreed assessment criteria and Pearson's procedures. Each moderator will moderate a specified number of centre samples.

Responsibilities

- To carry out the moderation of parts of a subject examination, such as coursework, projects and special studies, which are marked initially by teachers in the centres and then sent to you. Moderation will usually involve sampling procedures.
- To undertake, when necessary, the direct assessment of school-based components in the subject where centres opt not to make initial assessments.
- To complete and submit centre reports to the Team Leader or Lead Examiner as required

Experience and qualifications required

- You will have a degree or equivalent
- You will be a qualified teacher
- You will have UK based teaching experience in the relevant subject and level

Competencies

- You will have a high level of subject knowledge in order to apply the mark scheme

- You will have the ability to work well under pressure and meet deadlines
- You will be IT literate

Additional information

- The moderation period is between May and July
- With an average allocation, your fee would be £700 - £1000
- A fee for attending standardisation will also be paid when you have submitted your reports to Pearson.
